

Character Show-Offs

For this activity you will create a paper gingerbread replica of YOU!

You will each get a simple, undecorated, oak tag gingerbread cutout. Your task is to analyze yourself and think about the things that make you, YOU. You may use ribbon, yarn, colored paper, magazines, wallpaper scraps, buttons, felt... the choice is yours!

Below you will find some focus areas to guide your thinking.

- adjectives that describe you
- activities you like to do
- your favorites (e.g. foods, books, etc.)
- your successes
- how you spend your free time
- pets
- family members
- trips you have taken
- any other aspect of your life that demonstrate positive aspects you can share

Gingerbread Person Planning Guide:

List 4 adjectives that describe you:

1. _____

3. _____

2. _____

4. _____

Flip this page over

List 2 activities you like to do:

1. _____

2. _____

List 2 favorites: (e.g. foods, books, etc.)

1. _____

2. _____

List 2 successes:

1. _____

2. _____

List 2 ways you like to spend your free time:

1. _____

2. _____

List 2 of the following:

- pets
- family members
- trips you have taken

1. _____

2. _____

Other items YOU may want to include:

1. _____

2. _____

“WOW” US WITH YOUR CREATIVITY!

Janie Clark